Sometimes it seems as though the very ones who are untrammelled, who can go wherever and whenever they like, are the last to find happiness, having the whole wide world in which to carry on the quest for it. Felicity is discovered soonest by those who stay in one place long enough to make a thorough search. The restless ones, which the consciousness of all the earth outspread before them, are tempted to another spot ere they have explored the region round about them. When you were a child you may have played a ball game in long grass, where presently, to your exasperation, you lost the ball. It bounded over your head and hid as though an evil spirit dwelt in it, determined to stop the game and spoil your fun. You thought you knew precisely where it fell—and found you were the more deceived. It would not do, however, to "hunt all over the lot." You had to be patient, and compose your febrile eagerness to a systematic search over a limited area, while your comrade hunted in a circumscribed region adjoining. And presently you—or he—stumbled on an object that was not a rolling stone, and the lost was found. That is the best rule in the hunt for happiness. Perhaps it is under your feet!

Statistics appear to show that men are more likely to be struck by lightning than women, more than two men being killed by it for every woman. But it has to be borne in mind that the man's occupation is more likely to take him into the open when lightning is about. It has been observed, however, that in a group equally composed of both sexes lightning seems to prefer the men; and it is possible to theorize at pleasure as to whether it is the comparatively height that does it, or some protection afforded by woman's dress, or a difference in conductivity between the sexes. The fact that children are seldom killed by lightning supports to a certain extent the first of these theories.

An announcement which "struck cold to his heart," said Lord Rosebery in a recent speech in Glasgow, was that there was a shortage of 500,000 babies. This was one of the worst symptoms of modern civilization. He was, Lord Rosebery said, expected to comfort himself on the birth of a eugenic baby, but the difficulty was in knowing what a eugenic baby might be. He had no hope of living to see how it might develop, but one eugenic baby left 499,999 short of the number England ought to possess, and he confessed he would rather see them produced under ordinary circumstances than rejoice in the advent of this one miraculous infant.

A great many girls, as well as a great many boys like the idea of going to work and earning money. When 500 girls between 14 and 16 years of age in Chicago factories were asked: "If your father had a good job, so that he could afford to keep you in school, would you prefer to go to school or go to work in a factory?" Four hundred and twelve replied that they would prefer to be in the factory. Only 78 expressed a preference for school, perhaps some of them were moved by a desire to get away from the discipline of work rather than by a thirst for knowledge.

The Tower of London, with its dungeons and torture chambers, is to be thrown open to the public. After an inspection of this particular way of administering justice, and the laws, few pessimists will probably be found to maintain that human nature is steadily deteriorating.

Charles Dawson, the British scientist, who discovered the famous Pilt-down skull, has found out that members of a certain Eskimo tribe have an extra vertebrae in their spinal columns. It takes considerable backbone to exist in the arctic.

According to an agricultural authority, hens need amusement. They ought to be able to get at what they want contemplating the high price of eggs.

In the New Hebrides a baby island has been born, which fact speaks volumes for the size of the storks that have their habitat thereabouts.

COURT HOUSE CULLINGS

On March 2nd at two o'clock the commissioners will open bids for the grading of the approach of the New Rochester bridge located near the interior quarter post of Section 29, Freedom township.

The court of appeals has rendered their decisions in three cases, as follows:

Jessie M. Shank vs. D. B. Beers et al., an action to set aside deed to land in Jackson township now in the name of Libbie Henning on which a mortgage for $900 was foreclosed in 1895, motion to dismiss appeal of plaintiff overruled.

Nora Gebert vs. Charles Gebert, a case in which plaintiff was awarded divorce and $200 alimony, the amount of alimony is increased to $500.

Bert Russell vs. State of Ohio, appeal from common pleas court which upheld the finding of Mayor Van Voorhis, of Bowling Green, who found Russell guilty of keeping a place where liquor was sold and who fined him $300. Judgment of the lower court sustained.

The county commissioners have granted the petitions for two new ditches and fixed the dates for hearing on apportionment of the cost as follows: On March 12th at ten a. m., the Mary Householder ditch which is to commence about forty rods west of the northwest quarter post of section 18, Webster township, thence run in northerly direction to the Portage river; On March 17th at ten a. m. the H. M. Leffer ditch commencing about eighty rods east of the northwest corner of section three, Portage township.

THE BEST COUGH MEDICINE.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since I have been keeping house," says L. C. Hames, of Marbury, Ala. "I consider it one of the best remedies I ever used. My children have all taken it and it works like a charm. For colds and whooping cough it is excellent." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Indigestion

DO YOU KNOW that indigestion can be cured, permanently cured so that you can eat any kind of food that you crave? It has been done not only once, but in almost every case when Chamberlain's Tablets are used. An instance: Mr. J. Pominville, Stillwater, Minn., who had spent over $2,000.00 for medicine and treatment was permanently cured by these tablets.

HELPFUL WORDS

From A Perrysburg Citizen.

Is your back lame and painful? Does it ache especially after exertion? Is there a soreness in the kidney region? These symptoms suggest weak kidneys.

If so there is danger in delay. Weak kidneys get fast weaker. Give your trouble prompt attention. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Your neighbors use and recommend them.

Read this Perrysburg testimony.

Mrs. James Shuts, Third Street, Perrysburg, Ohio, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in our home for backache and pains across the loins and other symptoms of kidney complaint and the good results they have given warrants me in recommending them. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills very effective in curing troubles, caused by disordered kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

OBITUARY.

As announced in the Journal last week, Mr. Michael Muth died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Wittman in Perrysburg, February 17, 1914, at the age of 92 years.

He was born in Gembersheim, Gros herzogthum, Hessen Darmstadt by Wurms, in the year 1846. He married Margaret Mahlerwein, and came to America in 1850 and arrived in New York the 1st of October. In 1875 he returned to his native land but came back in 1876 and located his family in Perrysburg.

His wife died in Jan. 12, 1895.

He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Ludwig of Lockport, N. Y. and Mrs. Mary Wittman of Perrysburg with 10 grand children and three great grand children.

His funeral service was held on Friday Feb. 20, conducted by Rev. Dietz and the remains were buried in the Ft. Meigs cemetery.

He was a very worthy gentleman and had many friends in this locality who mourn his departure.

At a late hour oysters were served and the happy crowd departed for home, hoping to spend more such evenings with George Scheider and family.

GLENWOOD GLEANINGS.

The Farmers Progressive Club celebrated its first anniversary, Feb. 19th, with a sparrow hunt, resulting in killing 1,458 sparrows. The Club was divided in two sides, the losing side furnishing an elegant Chicken and Noodle soup supper to all the members of the club. Talk about your good times—it certainly was an occasion long to be remembered. All sorts of sports were enjoyed even from the late tango back to the old time square dances. And sparrows? Why some of our club members think of joining the Perrysburg Civic Association before they have their next sparrow hunt and show them how to get the birds. We are proud of our club as it is true to its name—Progressive.

Below is our Club Song composed by one of the lady members and sung to the tune of Marching through Georgia.

We're a band of men and women from the farm homes of the state; We're banded all together in a union strong and great, With interest in all questions which to country life relate To the Farmers Progressive Club of Glenwood.

CHORUS

Hurrah! Hurrah! we'll sing a joyful song;
Hurrah! Hurrah! we'll help the work along;
Till every man and woman in the state will belong;
To the Farmers Progressive Club of Glenwood.

Our object is a noble one to help the farmers life, In all of their endeavor to make the most of life;

To love the joy and beauty with which our homes are rife To the Farmers Progressive Club of Glenwood.—Chorus

We have a glorious color, too, the finest ever seen;

It is a badge of satin of lovely white and green, Which typifies the country life and all that it may mean

To the Farmers Progressive Club of Glenwood.—Chorus

So let us spread the gospel of a larger, broader way, For every body of the farm to grow in day by day;

With friends and neighbors off to meet in helpful work and play For the Farmers Progressive Club of Glenwood.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held at the home of Henry Kirchoff and wife, March 5, when the election of officers for the ensuing year will take place.
